FCGO 20-06: Non-medical Transports

MCFRS transports
patients with a medical chief complaint to a healthcare facility

We do NOT transport people to jail or the CPU at the request of the police

In limited circumstances, it may be appropriate to transport a person to a place of greater safety, such as a person in a wheelchair to get them out of the heat or to assist a person off the highway to a point of refuge.

These exceptions must be approved by the EMS Duty Officer.
